Orleans Sugars; Rio and Limitry—the 11th and 20th—had united with the 3d Light Cavalry, and had broken out in the 3d Light Cavalry, and had broken out in open revolt. This revolt, as far as it had showd itself at Meerut, had been put down. There the mutineers were dispersed, and fled To the Cash paid for all kinds of Farmers' Produce. so thward at no great distance, lies the important city of Delhi, the capital of the old Mogul Empire; and this town appears to have been the centre of the revolt. When the fugitives from Moerut arrived here they were instantly joined by three other regiments of native infanter. by three other regiments of native infantrythe 38th, the 54th and the 74th. and the united forces instantly took possession of the town.-Any one who has had experience of the tiger-like ferocity of the Indian in the moment of what Calhoun street, two doors north of Evans & Co. alt. The son of the late Wayne, the largest and most complete asserting the Mogul Emperor was proclaimee King, and thus of EATABLES in the city, delivered Free of Charge the shadowy Sovereign whom we have so long at their migintained in empty state has been raised into momentary importance—briefly, we trusi, to this all; there has been disquiet on our oldSikib lettle ground We are informed, under date from Calcutta of the 18th of May that at Ferozopore also there is at been disturbances, but that these disturbances had been suppressed. So far, for the blacker i le of the picture; and next for what has been done to mitigate or meet the evil. "The Govment was taking active measures to suppress the revolt, and was concentrating troops around It is of the last importance that the fugitives should not be allowed to escape in mbers from the principal seat of the disturbmees. When to this intelligence we add that the Rajah of Gwalior - the Mahratta State abutting on the southwestern limit of Delhi-had need the troops of which he could dispose at the service of the British Government, we have calcausted the brief but momentous advices which the electric telegraph brought to us at blate bour last night. The revolt in the Bengal Presidency of five regiments of Nativo Infantry and of one regiment of Light Cavalry, independently of what may have taken place at Ferosepore, is undoubtedly intelligence as important as any which we have published since the tall of Sebastopol. It must also be remembered that these are not the only regiments affected with the taint mutiny: indeed, the very telegraph which brings this news, adds that the 34th Regiment of Native Infantay, which had been before susproted, had been disbanded at Barrackpore.

IS a sure cure for Dyspensia—will remove all Flattulency and Heaviness from the Stomach keep you free from Costiveness, assist Digestion, give a good Appetite, and impart a healthy tone to the whole system. It is a certain preventive of Fever and Ague.

For sale by all the principal Druggists, and HOSTETTTER, SMITH & CO., Sole Mannfacturers and Proprietors, No. 267-Penn st., Pittsburgh.

Carefulness should be our study, but more parti-cularly when the health is at stake. Since these Bitters have, from their medical qualities, become so popular, there have been a great many concoctions called Stomach Bitters, and often represented to be the same in virtue as Dr. Hostetter's, palmed upon the public. Be careful of these vilainous compounds! Our Bitters are put up in square quart bottles, and covered with the patent metallic cap, stamped "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," and Dr. J Hostetter blown on the glass. All others are imitation.

PURIFY THE BLOOD. Moffat's Life Pills PHŒNIX BITTERS,

FREE FROM ALL MINERAL POISONS.

The great popularity which Mafats Life Pills an Phanix Bitters have attained, in consequence of the extraordinary cures effected by their use renders it unnecessary for the proprietor to enter into a particular analysis of their medicinal virtues of properties. Having been more than twenty years before the applies and having the pilled testimony of more than Three Mullions et persons who have been restored to the enjoyment of perfect health by them, it is believed that their reputation as the best vegetable medicine now before the public, admits of no dispute. In almost every city and village in the United States there are many who are ready to teatify to their efficacy in removing disease, and giving to the whole eystem renewed vigor and health.

In agrees of Scrofula, Ulcers, Curvy of Eruptions of the skin, the operation of the Life Medicines is truly astonishing, often removing in a few days every vestige of these loathsome diseases, by their purifying effects on the blood. Fever and Ague, Dyspersia, Dronsy, Plass, and in short most all diseases, soon wield to their agents.

POETRY.

"Hoe out your Row." One lazy day, a farmer's boy Was hoeing out the corn,

And moodily had listened long, To hear the dinner horn. The welcome blast was heard at last. And down he dropped his hoe; But the good man shouted in his ear, "My boy, hoe out your row!"

Although a "hard one" was the row, To use a plowman's phrase, And the lad, as sailors have it. Beginning well to "haze"-"l can!" said he, and manfully

And the good man smiled to see The boy hoe out his row. The lad the text remembered, And proved the moral well, That perseverance to the end.

At last will nobly tell,

And strike a vigorous blow.

He seized again his hoe,

Always hoe out your row. Chinese Sugar Cane—Further Experiment in Crystalization.

The mutinous spirit, which had to a certain extent been cheeked, if not extinguished, in the more southern portion of Bengal, had spread to Meerut. At this post two regiments of Native Java Coffee, and N. Orleans Sugars; Rio and Metrut. At this post two regiments of Native Java Coffee; Teas, Pepper, Spices, Tobacco, Segars, Intentity—the 11th and 20th—had united with Pickles, Sauces, &c., &c. the 3d Light Cavalry, and had broken out in open revolt. This revolt, as far as it had showed itself at Meerut, had been put down. There had been a collision between the revolted and the PROVISIONS such as Potatoes, Butter Eggs, Fruit, part of European troops, the result of which was that Flour, CornMeal, Dried Beef, Hams, Fish; &c. the mutineers were dispersed, and fled. To the so thward at no great distance, lies the important city of Delhi, the capital of the old Mogul Empire; and this town appears to have been the to sell at the very lowest prices, and he therefore centre of the revolt. When the fugitives from hopes to receive a liberal share of publi : patronage. Meerut arrived here they were instantly joined by three other regiments of native infantry—the 38th, the 54th and the 74th, and the united forces instantly took possession of the town.-Any one who has had experience of the tiger- TAVE removed their Wholesale and Retail the ferceity of the Indian in the moment of what Provision Emporium to No. 5 Phonix Block alt. like ferocity of the Indian in the moment of what appears to him success will be prepared for the Europeans was the first act upon which the mutineers decided, and this they are said to have carried out in a manner the most remorseless Provisions, Pickles, Preserves, and the most complete. No tenderness was shown to sex, no reverence to age; Delhi was turned inte shambles, and so the first act of the tragedy was played out. "The Gov-... ment was taking active measures to suppress the revolt, and was concentrating troops around Pelhi." It is of the last importance that the fugitives should not be allowed to escape in numbers from the principal seat of the disturbunces. When to this intelligence we add that the Rajah of Gwalior - the Mahratta State abutting on the southwestern limit of Delhi-had placed the troops of which he could dispose at the service of the British Government, we have exhausted the brief but momentous advices which the electric telegraph brought to us at a late Sour last night. The revolt in the Bengal Presidency of five regiments of Native. Infantry and of one regiment of Light Cavalry, independently of what may have taken place at Ferosepore, is undoubtedly intelligence as important as any which we have published since the tall of Sebastipol. It must also be remembered that these are not the only regiments affected with the taint of mutiny; indeed, the very telegraph which brings this news, adds that the 34th Regiment of Native Infantay, which had been before sus-
